

Marian University Study Abroad Liability Form

In conducting study abroad programs, Marian University makes every effort to protect the welfare and safety of the participants. Recognizing, however, that participation in the program is voluntary and that there are certain inherent risks that the participant must assume, the undersigned individuals understand that neither the University, nor any cooperating institution, assumes any responsibility for damage to or loss of property, for personal illness or injury, or for death while a participant is in the program. Although the University may assist in providing information on health care and insurance, it is the individual student's responsibility to ascertain that he/she has adequate health and accident coverage, valid during his/her stay abroad. Proof of such coverage should be submitted to the Study Abroad Office.

Marian University seeks to discourage students from owning or operating motor vehicles while participating in study abroad programs. Marian University assumes no financial responsibility for legal aid or for the care of the students should he/she be involved in an accident while operating a motor vehicle. Opportunities for individual travel are plentiful and the University does not wish to discourage participants from taking advantage of them. The University, however, undertakes no responsibility for the participant when he/she is traveling during the course of the study abroad program.

By signing this release you are representing that you have read and understand its terms and conditions and that you agree to release Marian University and cooperating institutions, their officers and agents from any and all claims and causes of action whatsoever for damage to or loss of property, for medical and hospital care expenses, for personal illness or injury, or for death arising out of any travel or participation in an activity conducted by or under the control of Marian University and any cooperating institutions.
