

MARIAN UNIVERSITY

Dear Ms. Thomas,

Please find enclosed the information that the District of Columbia uses to assess necessity of obtaining authorization to operate as a degree granting institution in the state. I am looking forward to hearing from you regarding Marian University's authorization to provide distance education to residents in the District of Columbia.

Sincerely,

DISTRICT OF COLUMBIA HIGHER EDUCATION LICENSURE COMMISSION

Notice Regarding Distance/Online Education Programs

The District of Columbia Higher Education Licensure Commission (“HELC”, the “Commission”) is the authority responsible for the oversight of all postsecondary institutions in the District of Columbia. The Commission determines whether an entity does or does not require licensure and approves, denies or exempts applicants.

Please provide the following information to the Commission so that a determination can be made regarding your institutional offerings to DC residents:

1. Name and address of your institution
2. Name, telephone number and email address for an institutional contact person
3. Mode of program delivery (video/audio conferencing, DVD, internet, etc.)
4. Copies of state licenses
5. Name of accreditation organization
6. List courses, degrees or certificates that will be offered online
7. Whether or not DC residents are currently enrolled in your programs
8. Copy of current, printed catalog
9. Narrative on how your programs are advertised
10. Does your institution have representatives to recruit students; and if so, list the names of the representatives, and the state they are licensed in

Send the above information to the attention of Ms. Dorothy Thomas to the address in the footer of this letter or via email at dorothy.thomas@dc.gov. Please allow at least sixty (60) days for a response from the Commission.

Currently or Previously Affiliated Institutions - 05/09/2014

The directory of institutions provides information on institutions accredited by the Commission, those holding candidate for accreditation status, and those that previously held status, but have since closed, merged, or had their status withdrawn. It includes the Statement of Affiliation Status and Organizational Profile for each currently accredited and candidate institution, any Public Disclosure Notices that have been issued, and the most recent action letters from reaffirmations of accreditation occurring after June 2013.

Information provided on the Statement of Affiliation Status reflects the most recent actions of the Commission. The Commission has a multi-level decision process. Any institutional changes that are currently under review are not made public until final action has been taken.

**During the transition to the new Pathways model for reaffirmation of accreditation, some scheduled events are not displayed on this version of the Statement of Affiliation Status. Institutions can refer to the transition maps in the Open and Standard Pathways booklets for the timing of reviews. Institutions that have questions about other scheduled events should contact their HLC staff liaison.****
