

Miscellaneous Non-Course Fees

The following list identifies non - tuition expenses the student will incur during their completion of the Radiologic Technology Program:

- Program contracted records management company for completion of background check and drug screening (both program acceptance requirements)
- Completion of physical exam (program acceptance requirement)
- Completion of clinical agency immunizations (if necessary) (program acceptance requirement)
- American Heart Association Basic Life Support Provider Course (completed during RAD 301 course)
- Program fee (per semester)
- Required course textbooks.
- Required program uniform (recommend minimum of 3 sets)
- Room and board
- Traveling to clinical agency sites
- Attendance at Wisconsin Association of Educators in Radiologic Technology (WAERT) Student Symposium during Spring Semester of senior year (fund raising opportunities available)
- Application fee for American Registry of Radiologic Technologists (ARRT) examination during Spring Semester of senior year
- Application for State of Wisconsin Licensed Radiographer during Spring Semester of senior year
- Graduation application fee per university