

MARIAN UNIVERSITY

Bachelor of Science in CRIMINAL JUSTICE

A top-ranked program designed to help you protect and serve

From deterring would-be offenders to solving cases, this program prepares students to enforce the law and effect change that keeps communities safe. Taught by well-respected experts with years of career experience, our courses are designed for working adults, and the coursework is designed to fit busy lifestyles.

Focused on law enforcement, correctional institutions, and social and juvenile justice, you'll gain an understanding of preventing or responding to crime, as well as develop a greater understanding of the real-world issues, policies, and procedures that will directly impact your desired career path.

The program offers:

- 100% online, 7-week accelerated classes, 6 possible starts per year
- Flexible coursework designed for working adult learners
- The ability to focus on fewer topics at a time
