Bachelor of Science in INTERDISCIPLINARY STUDIES

Combine your love for multiple disciplines into one degree

Today's companies and organizations are looking for sharp professionals who are critical thinkers and innovative problem solvers. You can be competitive and advance your career with this 100% online program, designed to empower you to pursue your passion for learning.

Our diverse curriculum will enable you to develop and hone qualities that employers seek — effective communication, creative problem solving, and critical thinking. You'll choose either a humanities or social sciences track, and then will prepare for a wide variety of careers in multiple industries.

Graduates have continued on to law school and started or advanced careers in public service, law enforcement, ministry, information technology, healthcare, school administration, and so much more.

This is so much more than a flexible liberal arts degree — rather, it's an appeal to adventurous spirits who crave deep learning and transformative experiences.
